

Ange's family would like to sincerely thank you for your kind thoughts, messages, love and presence here today and on-line.

Ange's ashes are interred in the Banyena Cemetery with her parents.

Love & cheer
Ange
XOXO♥

Angela Drew.

11 DECEMBER 1958 - 13 FEBRUARY 2025

THE BANYENA HALL,
BANYENA

FRIDAY 4TH APRIL 2025,
11AM

ONE LIFE LIVED
MANY LIVES TOUCHED

ORDER OF SERVICE

BEST SELLER

Title: Angela, Ange but never Angie

SCENARIO:

A magnetic personality from a big family who is a sister, an aunty, a great aunty and cousin. She has loads of friends, and loved life to the fullest

INTERESTS:

The Theatre, Live music, Art exhibitions, Cooking, Movies, Family History/ Traditions, The Beach, The Pool, Creativity in all forms

SUPERPOWERS:

Events Organiser, Caterer, Socialiser, Networker, Communicator, Car Park Finder, Early Childhood Teacher Extraordinaire, Storyteller, A Wonderful Friend

ATTRIBUTES:

Optimistic, Confident, Resilient, Loyal, Visionary, Inspirational, Motivator, Problem Solver, Creator

GREATEST LOVES:

Family and friends with a soft spot for Freo

Written by Gwen Cooke February 2025

Geoff Vale ~ Acoustic Guitar

OPENING SONG

When I Die ~ The Waifs

WELCOME & INTRODUCTION

Caitlyn McLoughlin

SONG

Don't fence me in ~ Paul Kelly

POEM

Geraldine Drum

EULOGY & TRIBUTES

Josephine Drum ~ Sister

Howard Reade ~ Ange's teacher & friend

Denise Knight ~ Shared stories, student and Mildura days

Danica Cutter ~ Niece and goddaughter

Samuel Coleman ~ Nephew and Ange's apprentice chef

SONG

Suitcase of Stars ~ Bernard Carney

OUR FRIEND

Video tribute from Perth friends

A TOUCH OF ANGE

Vicki McEvoy

Pakenham Heights Kindergarten

Banyena Silo ~ Peter Drum

Gwen Cooke

Beaconsfield School ~ Jo Wicks

Helen Delahunty & Catherine Nance

PHOTO TRIBUTE AND SONG

Safe in the Harbour ~ Eric Bogle

CLOSING WORDS

Caitlyn McLoughlin

RECESSIONAL SONG

Somewhere over the Rainbow
Israel Kamkawiwo'ole

